

Quality Policy

Techmatiks is committed to design, develop and manufacture reliable, safe and cost effective electrical and electronics products/systems. Our products meets and exceeds customer expectations. Our policy is to provide highly performing quality products to the customers by adopting best benchmark industrial practices and there by to excel in trade. We give optimum products that provides sustained and enhanced customer expectations and can meet all regulatory requirements.

Quality Objectives

- 1) Total customer satisfaction by providing high level of quality at all levels of design and manufacturing.
- 2) Continual improvement of products and process by adopting evolving technologies, internal inspection, quality reviews, etc.
- 3) Development and manufacture of products with high reliability, fast turn around time and competitive cost.
- 4) Tight quality of manufactured product at all stages of manufacturing and before shipment.
- 5) Involvement of customers and vendors through out the design and development cycle to produce market leading products.
- 6) Monitoring the voice of customers and taking appropriate actions where ever necessary.
- 7) Standardization of process and procedures for maintaining uniformity
- 8) Continuous utilization and up-gradation of resources and infrastructures